The costs of the Arbitrator shall be borne by the participant, which may be subject to reimbursement in accordance with the provisions of Section 11.b. This arbitration shall equally apply to claims of fraud or fraud in the inducement.

b. The arbitration shall commence within one hundred eighty (180) days of the date on which a written demand for arbitration is filed with the Arbitrator. In connection with the arbitration proceeding, the Arbitrator shall have the power to order the production of documents by each party and any third-party witness but shall not have the power to order the answering of interrogatories or the response to requests for admission. The arbitration shall also not have any depositions in connection with any discovery. In connection with the arbitration, each party shall provide to the other, no later than seven (7) business days before the date of the arbitration, the identity of all persons that may testify at the arbitration and a copy of all documents that may be introduced at the arbitration or considered or used by a party's witnesses or experts.
